SUBJECT: REVIEW AND ADJUSTMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS FOR MILITARY SERVICE MEMBERS DEPLOYED OUT-OF-STATE

REFERENCE: FAMILY CODE SECTIONS 3651, 3653, AND 17440

The purpose of this letter is to disseminate information about a new review and adjustment process available to members of that National Guard and military reservists who are deployed out-of-state. This new process has been developed in accordance with provisions of Senate Bill (SB) 1082, Chapter 154, Statutes of 2005, which was signed by Governor Schwarzenegger on August 30, 2005.

The new legislation mandates:

- a new Department of Child Support Services (DCSS) form and review and modification process for IV-D cases;
- a new Judicial Council form and review and modification process for non IV-D cases; and
- a new compromise of arrears program for service members deployed out-of- state who fail to request a modification of their child support order prior to deployment. Details of the new compromise program will be issued in a separate (Child Support Service) CSS letter.

Amended Family Code Section 3651 now provides that when a member of the National Guard or a military reservist is a party to a child support order and is activated and deployed out-of-state, the service member may request a modification to his/her child support order prior to his or her activation. The new law allows the support order to be made retroactive to the date of service on the other party or the date of deployment, whichever is later, unless the court finds good cause not to make the order retroactive. The notice of activation and deployment is filed in lieu of a notice of motion or order to show cause.

If the court is unable to schedule the hearing prior to the date of deployment, the court may grant a stay of proceedings until the service member returns from deployment. The requirements for a stay are subject to the timelines and conditions for granting a stay set forth in the federal Service members Civil Relief Act (United States Code, Appendix of Title 50, section 522). If a stay is granted, the child support order and payment obligation remain unchanged for the duration of the stay.

If a stay of the proceeding is granted, the service member must request, within 90 days after returning from deployment, that the court calendar the hearing. Nonetheless, service members who do not file a request for modification prior to deployment are not subject to penalties or interest on any amount of child support that would not have accrued if the order had been modified prior to deployment. Upon a finding by the court that good cause did not exist for the service member's failure to request a modification, penalties and interest may be applied as allowed by law. The process and form used to request the modification differs for IV-D and non IV-D orders as follows:

IV-D Orders

At the time of deployment, staff at the deployment center will provide the service member with a "Notice of Deployment – Request for Review of Child Support Order" (DCSS 0585) and an address list of the local child support agencies (LCSAs). The service member must complete the form, attach the required income and expense information along with the order of deployment and other required documentation, and mail the packet to the LCSA that is enforcing the child support order. Within five business days of receipt of a completed "Notice of Deployment – Request for Review of Child Support Order" form, the LCSA must file a motion to modify the support order on behalf of the service member. If the hearing is not set prior to the service member's deployment, the court may grant a stay of proceedings until the service member returns from deployment. The service member is responsible for contacting the LCSA, the court, and the other party in the child support case within 90 days of return from deployment or the existing order may not be made retroactive.

Non IV-D Orders

At the time of deployment, staff at the deployment center will provide the service member with a "Notice of Activation of Military Service and Deployment and Request to Modify a Support Order" (Judicial Council Form No. FL-398) and information sheet. The service member must complete the form, attach the required income and expense information along with the order of deployment, and submit the packet in accordance with the form's instructions.

If the hearing is not set prior to the service member's deployment, the service member must request the court to set the hearing within 90 days of the date of return, if known. If the return date is unknown, the service member is responsible for contacting the court within 90 days of return from deployment or the existing order may not be made retroactive.

Forms

The following forms are attached:

“Notice of Deployment – Request for Review of Child Support Order (DCSS 0585)” - This form will be used by the service member with a IV-D child support order to request that the LCSA file a motion for modification on his/her behalf. A copy of this form is attached. In the future, it will be available on the DCSS website. The Consortia system is in the process of adding this form to the ARS and CASES systems. In the interim, if an LCSA has a need for this form, please use the attached form. LCSAs will be notified by their consortia system representative when the form becomes available on the consortia systems. If you have questions on the availability of this form, please contact your consortia system representative.

“Notice of Activation of Military Service and Request to Modify a Support Order (FL-398)” – This form will be used by a service member with a non-IV-D child support order to file a motion for modification with the courts. This form may be found at the California Judicial Council forms webpage at: <http://www.courtinfo.ca.gov/forms/>.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this matter, please contact Lindsay Farris, Manager, Case Management Policy Section, at (916) 464-5055.

Sincerely,

NOTICE TO ALL CUSTODIAL PARTIES AND NON-CUSTODIAL PARENTS DEPLOYING OUT-OF-STATE

ATTENTION: All recently activated National Guard Members and Military Reservists with child support orders

SUBJECT: Opportunity to request a review and possible modification of your support order prior to out-of-state deployment

Opportunity to request a lower interest rate on past-due child support debts

Review and Possible Modification of Child Support Orders

If you have a child support obligation, or are receiving child support payments for a child or children in your custody, and are being deployed out-of-state, you have an opportunity to request a review and possible modification of the child support order before you deploy. If you will experience a change in income based on your call to active duty, your child support order may be modified accordingly.

If your support order is being enforced by a local child support agency (LCSA), complete a Notice of Deployment – Request for Review of Child Support Order (DCSS 0585). Attach a copy of your order of deployment, a copy of your Leave and Earnings Statement, an Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150), copies of your paycheck stubs for the last two months, your most recent W-2 forms, and any other required documentation. Submit the complete packet to the LCSA which is enforcing your support order. (See attached list of LCSA names, addresses, and telephone numbers.)

Within five (5) business days of receiving your request, the LCSA will review your case and, if appropriate for modification, file a motion with the court to modify the support order. Please note that the review may result in an upward modification, a downward modification, or no change to the child support order.

If your support order is not being enforced by an LCSA, complete a Notice of Activation of Military Service and Deployment and Request to Modify a Support Order (FL-398), attach the appropriate documentation, file the packet directly with the court, and serve the other party to the order. Instructions for completing the form, filing it with the court, and serving the other party, are included with the form.

If possible, the court will schedule a hearing on the matter prior to your date of deployment. If the court is unable to hear the matter prior to your deployment date, you have 90 days from the date you return from deployment to request that a hearing be scheduled or you will lose the right to change the support order retroactively. If your modification is approved, it will be effective on the date the FL-398 was served on the other party, or your date of deployment, whichever is later.

Reduction of Interest Rate on Past-Due Child Support Debts

If your support order is being enforced by an LCSA, you may use a Notice of Deployment – Request for Review of Child Support Order (DCSS 0585) to request that the interest rate charged on any child support arrears that accrued prior to your deployment be reduced to six percent (6%) for the duration of your deployment in accordance with the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. To be eligible for a reduction in interest rate, you must prove that your activation to military service has had a "material effect" on your ability to pay the usual interest rate of ten percent (10%). Submit the request to the LCSA which is enforcing your support order. (See attached list of LCSA names, addresses, and telephone numbers.)

If your support order is being enforced by an entity other than an LCSA, you must contact that entity in writing to request a reduction in the interest rate.

For Assistance

For assistance with these processes, you may seek advice from the Judge Advocate General's Corps Legal Assistance Office, the Family Law Facilitator in your county, or the LCSA handling your case.

INFORMATION SHEET FOR COMPLETING AND RESPONDING TO NOTICE OF ACTIVATION OF MILITARY SERVICE AND DEPLOYMENT AND REQUEST TO MODIFY A SUPPORT ORDER

If you are the person requesting that the support order be changed:

Please follow these instructions to complete the Notice of Activation of Military Service and Deployment and Request to Modify a Support Order if you do not have an attorney to represent you. This form is intended to be used by a service member to ask the court to modify support based on his or her military activation and out-of-state deployment. If you have an attorney, he or she should complete this form. If you would like the local child support agency to assist you, fill out a Notice of Deployment and submit it to the local child support agency. They will prepare a request for modification, and you will not need to appear if you are already deployed. The local child support agency must attach the Notice of Deployment to form FL-398 to show the court that the service member has authorized the agency to act on his or her behalf. You can obtain a Notice of Deployment from any local child support agency. Please note that the child support agency cannot provide services for a modification of spousal support.

You may also ask to appear by telephone. See rule 5.324 of the California Rules of Court, and form FL-679 Request for Telephone Appearance (Governmental). If you are in the military, you may also ask for the assistance of a JAG (Judge Advocate General) officer.

In addition to the modification procedures contained in the Notice of Activation of Military Service and Deployment and Request to Modify a Support Order, a service member who has been activated may be eligible for a modification based on a change in circumstances, specifically a change in income due to military activation. To request a modification of support for reasons other than out-of-state deployment, see FL-391 Information Sheet--Simplified Way to Change Child, Spousal, or Family Support for what forms to use and instructions. The service member may also have certain protections provided by the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA). Please note that a modification of support cannot be effective any earlier than the filing with the court of the request to modify support.

When you have completed this form, file the original and attachments with the court clerk. The address of the court clerk is listed in the telephone directory under "County Government Offices." Keep two copies of the filed Notice of Activation of Military Service and Deployment and Request to Modify a Support Order form and its attachments. Serve one copy as well as a blank Responsive Declaration to Order to Show Cause or Notice of Motion (form FL-320) and blank Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150) or Financial Statement (Simplified) (form FL-155) on the other party. If the local child support agency is involved, serve it too. Keep another copy for your records. (See Information Sheet for Service of Process, form FL-611, *Proof of

If you are the person receiving the request that the support order be changed:

You will need to file a response and go to the hearing unless a written agreement is reached and signed by the court before the hearing.

- Complete the Responsive Declaration to Order to Show Cause or Notice of Motion (form FL-320). If a blank Responsive Declaration to Order to Show Cause or Notice of Motion (form FL-320) was not given to you when you received the Notice of Activation of Military Service and Deployment and Request to Modify a Support Order (form FL-398), the court clerk's office, the court's Office of the Family Law Facilitator, or the local child support agency can tell you where one can be found. Or you can get one from the California Court's Web site: www.courtinfo.ca.gov/forms/.

See the instructions on the back of the form to see if you qualify; otherwise, you must fill out the form Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). You must attach copies of your most recent W-2 forms and paycheck stubs for the last two months to the Financial Statement (Simplified) (form FL-155) or the Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). - Your Financial Statement (Simplified) (form FL-155) or Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150).

For instructions on how to serve these papers properly, see Information Sheet for Service of Process (form FL-611), Proof of Personal Service (form FL- 330) and Proof of Service by Mail (form FL-335). Whoever serves the papers should fill out and must sign the Proof of Service. If there are reasons to file your own motion for modification, see FL-391 Information Sheet-Simplified Way to Change Child, Spousal, or Family Support. NOTICE: Consult the courts Office of the Family Law Facilitator or the local court rules to see if there are any other documents you will need to have served on the local child support agency and on the other party.

The local child support agency or the court's family law facilitator's office may be able to provide you with a child support calculation based on both parents' income to determine the amount of guideline support. If you agree with the proposed changes, you may be able to have one of these offices prepare an agreement to change the child support and have it signed by both parents and the court. If you are able to reach an agreement with the other party and the agreement is signed by the court before the hearing, you do not need to appear at the hearing.

NOTICE: Unless you know the hearing has been taken off calendar, you should go to the hearing as scheduled to protect your rights. You might consider calling the court the day before the hearing to see if the hearing is still on the calendar.

If you need additional assistance with this form, contact an attorney or the court's family law facilitator.
